"I hired Deck Masters to do some repairs on my deck. They got the job done quickly and on schedule. I asked them for some help inside my house and they promptly completed demo work on my master bathroom for me. It was great working with Jackie, Andrew and the rest of the team! Thanks!"

"Deckmasters built a deck railing, landing, and a long staircase to our existing deck, which previously had no outside access. The workmanship is outstanding, and the new addition blends seamlessly with the original structure—it looks like it has always been part of the deck. The staircase is sturdy, safe, and beautifully designed, giving us both confidence and peace of mind when using it. The project was completed on schedule, the work area was kept clean and organized, and communication throughout the entire process was excellent. The finished result not only improved the accessibility of our deck but also enhanced the overall appearance of our home. I highly recommend Deckmasters to anyone looking for high-quality craftsmanship from a professional company that truly cares about their clients and takes pride in their work."

"Replacing our 60ftx10ft deck sounded pretty intimidating for me. I put it off for several years, but knew it needed to be done...and built correctly. Jordan and his team at Deck Masters were outstanding through every step. They were so helpful in making decisions, yet never pushy at all. They even encouraged us to get a couple other quotes to make sure we wanted them to go ahead with the project. I thought decks could only be done during the summer, but the Deck Master team built our deck in less than two weeks starting the last week of November. We are excited to use our deck even more during the summer. Thank you, Jordan and team, for a job well done!"

"I chose to work with Deck Masters this last summer to rebuild our deck. Jordan and his team were responsive and transparent through the entire project. We ran into a few obstacles over the course of the project and Jordan was there every step of the way to answer questions and help troubleshoot. Jackie was always helpful when Jordan was unavailable to answer questions and relay messages. "This was a great experience! First and foremost - I have a beautiful porch. Thank you! Second - this was absolutely the nicest and sweetest group of guys. They were funny, pleasant, professional, efficient, diligent, and worked well as a team. Third - they communicated with me. They noticed I have trouble with steps and made the steps easy for me to negotiate (no 'Alaska steps'). They made sure t fencing around the porch was 'dog proof' - the porch is in the dog yard. Fourth - they obviously take pride in their work. Everything is well done, and well finished to the point of being artistic. Fifth - they were timely and coordinated - it was finished in about a total of 2 days. Sixth - they cleaned up after themselves. Awesome crew. Fantastic job."

"We contracted with Jordan to have them replace our old rickety front and back decks, as well as expand the back deck significantly. Got a little delayed start due to Covid hitting and the initial lockdowns earlier this year, and some delays on the aluminum railing materials due to the pandemic, but our decks are finally complete and we couldn't be happier with the quality of construction. These decks are solid! I appreciated when they offered to extend the back deck out an extra foot at no extra cost so that there would be less wasted decking material, added approximately 40 sq ft. Justin was meticulous and did a fantastic job! This was the only good thing to come out of 2020."

"Once Two Seasons showed up on site, they worked steadily, with high quality and attention to detail. However, they appeared about a month later than expected, after many delays. The five star rating stands because we signed a contract without a completion date. The wrong railing material was delivered, which we fortunately discovered before installation. This was corrected and the specified materials were delivered rapidly. Also, the first crew members on site were unsure of the deck width dimension. Both problems would not have happened if the crew had had a copy of the plans and a materials list. That said, due to the quality of their work and their professionalism, we would definitely work with them again."

"We were asked to give an honest review of our new deck that was recently finished by Deck Masters. OK! First and foremost, we are so happy with our new deck and how it turned out. As a homeowner you always wonder how a big project like this will turn out when you're in the long planning/waiting phase. These guys nailed it, truly. The railing system we had installed is truly stunning! Shoutout to Sean who was especially awesome and showed a very professional demeanor, he even asked to come work on the weekend to help finish our deck railing on time(Thank you!). We had a deck board that we found had been damaged, and a piece of trim we wanted fixed. They made it known that it would be quickly/happily fixed which they did! Deck 5 out of 5 stars. We were originally told our project would start late July with the possibility of it starting sooner when we put our deposit down in May. We had not heard anything last week of July so I reached out and was told they were running behind and it wouldn't be till late august. We were frustrated and decided to cancel the project because we figured it was to late in the summer that we wouldn't be able to enjoy it. I quickly received a call from the owner Jordan who was apologetic and assured me our project was next and would start in a few days.

He mentioned that our project would take about a week to a week and a half. We decided to continue with the project. They did start the project just a few days later. Our deck took nearly six weeks from start to finish. There was spans of several days and even well over a week where we wouldn't hear from or see anyone during this time. Prompting us to reach out and get an update several times. We were usually told that they were waiting on supplies or needed to order something else. We started to feel like the planning was either last minute for the orders or they just had bitten off more than they could chew with projects this year. Our advice? Most customers realize how much things can change with deadlines, material, etc. It's easier for us to be flexible if you keep us in the loop, even with the smallest details. Thanks again for the great job!

"After a year of attempting to have my deck repaired or rebuilt, I was ready to give up on the project. No shows on bids, "I'll get back with you" comments, we are booked, etc. etc. I called Deck Masters. A representative came within a few days, made a rough drawing with dimensions and gave me preliminary suggestions and ideas. A short time later I received a bid (lower than most big box stores) with a detailed explanation of construction steps, fees, lumber sizes, supports required, and a lot of other detailed information. I was amazed at the details. I accepted the contract and set a completion date. The work was truly amazing. The old deck was removed with no damage to the existing house, and all was hauled away. A framework was constructed that looked bomb proof. When the Trex decking was applied it truly became a masterpiece with their picture frame method. When the railing was added the deck became a work of art. I was totally satisfied that all my questions had been answered patiently. Any suggestions I had were considered. If I wanted something that was not construction worthy, the lead worker let me know and explained why. All of the workers appeared highly trained and aware of their responsibilities. The office was in contact with me during construction and boosted my confidence. When the deck was completed, I was sort of glad that all the previous contractors had dropped out, maybe that was good. The new deck has enhanced the appearance of my home. I highly recommend folks take their time with a deck project to insure they get the best. That is what I got with Deck Masters AK."

"We recently completed a very large, complex project with Deckmasters. Like any project of this size, there were challenges along the way, but I can confidently say we are incredibly satisfied with the end result and would highly recommend them. Our original scope was already ambitious: replacing our second-story wraparound deck, replacing the deck over our garage, and adding a brand-new first-floor deck with stairs connecting the two levels. Partway through, we expanded the project to include replacing all the exterior siding of our home, which was long overdue for repairs. These improvements were critical for both the safety of our kids and the longevity of our home. Naturally, a project of this size came with its share of hurdles—delays with siding and materials, a septic system replacement (which we handled separately), and, most significantly, discovering major water damage and black mold in the garage walls once the old deck was removed. Deckmasters stepped up in a huge way. They reconstructed the walls of our garage (remarkably without removing the interior drywall or garage doors) saving us significant time and cost. They also rebuilt the garage roof and ensured everything was structurally sound for the long term. What stood out most was their attention to detail and the work ethic of their crew. Absolutely 10/10. They were respectful, hardworking, and clearly cared about the quality of their work. Communication wasn't perfect at every stage, but whenever we raised concerns, the team responded with ownership and genuine effort to resolve the issue. To improve things, they even set up weekly in-person check-ins with us, which went a long way in my book. Their commitment to doing the best job possible was evident throughout this entire experience. We'd like to give a special shoutout to Sean, who not only treated our home as if it were his own but also personally repaired the serious issues with our garage roof and walls like a real-life magician. On top of that, he quickly became a favorite of our dogs, delivering daily attention and treats. :) It may seem like a simple thing, but our dogs are part of our family and we noticed his care for them. Jordan Webb handled some of the hardest points of the project with humility. After a roofer left us in the lurch with a sub-par job and an exposed roof in the rain, I had a full-blown anxiety attack. Jordan listened, let me vent and cry, apologized, and quickly brought in a new roofer who finished the job correctly. His integrity and the pride he takes in his work is clear, and his focus on details that affected the safety of our kids meant a lot to us. Justin deserves huge credit for meticulously replacing our siding, soffit, and fascia. Our house is an odd shape with tricky angles, but he measured and cut everything with precision so the new materials fit beautifully. He even adjusted deck boards on our back deck after I pointed out that a gap between the deck and the house wasn't perfectly parallel (small details that made a big difference in the finished product). Robert, Quillin, and Cameron were wizards when it came to finishing touches—replacing scratched boards, repairing minor details we flagged and then some, and framing our lower deck with real craftsmanship. Above all, every single member of this crew was kind and respectful. That goes a long way in my book. Big projects are never perfect, but Deckmasters proved themselves to be problem-solvers who care deeply about both their craft and their clients. We're grateful for all their hard work and proud of the home we now have because of them."

"I wish to thank Sean and Rayne of Deck Masters for the outstanding experience I had with them as they repaired my deck. They came out looked at the damage, formulated a plan and went to work. Despite the February weather, they quickly removed all of the rotten/broken decking and supports. Without asking they explained the repair process. Why they were doing what and why it was being done that way. The new wood was fitted into place with what, looked easy-going to me. The mess was cleaned up and the job was finished in just two days. I also want to thank Jackie for putting up with my phone calls. She kept me posted as to my progress on the wait list. She was always polite and upbeat. THANKS TO ALL MIKE SHAUGHNESSY"

"When my husband said he wanted a new deck I was like oh boy... here we go dealing with unresponsive contractors, haggling with quotes and playing phone tags... To my surprise, Deck Masters reached out right away and either called or showed up in person to discuss any changes/issues. We instantly appreciated Jordan's responsiveness and detailed explanation over the phone which is hard to find these days. Special kudos to Isaac and Robert who have been flexible to accommodate the changes/requests along the way. They have gone above and beyond our expectation. I can most definitely recommend Deck Masters (and I rarely recommend!) good job guys and thank you!"

"Deck Masters built a beautiful deck on the back of our house where we previously had only a small set of stairs. The deck exemplifies high quality construction and classic visual appeal. The crew was professional in all aspects of the deck construction. There were a couple of communication hiccups during the process, but Jordan was very quick to respond and work through any concerns. I believe Deck Masters truly wants their clients to be completely satisfied with their work and the decks they build.....which we are. I would definitely recommend Deck Masters to those in the market for a new deck."

"Via a referral, and after researching a few other deck builders, I contacted Jordan Webb at Deck Masters, formally Two Seasons. My first hint of the type business Jordan was running was when I was greeted with an immediate response requesting a meeting at the house so he could get a feel for what my wife and would like to have done. No other builder responded to that point, and when they did they basically said for what I wanted done they didn't need to visit the site. Needless to say, I wasn't comfortable with that. Man am I glad Jordan reached out. From the beginning Jordan explained what would happen and what we could expect. It was that way through the whole build. Pretty much right away, when our old deck was demoed and hauled away, they found some water damage under the vinyl siding of the house. They pointed out the problem area and told me they could fix if I wanted it done. They also did some math and explained that if I was ok with it, they could lower the deck where it connected to the house saving material while providing a little relief to my wallet in the process. This type of interaction took place throughout the entire build and I can't stress enough how much this was appreciated. By the time they finished and moved on I felt as though I made some new friends as opposed to a business contact. You simply can't beat that in today's world. I would like to extend a special thank you to Mathew and Trey for the work and attention to detail they provided. I HIGHLY recommend Deck Masters Alaska if you're looking to add a deck to your home. It simply turned out beautiful and right on the money for what we had pictured in our mind prior meeting these gentlemen."

"Deck masters did an outstanding job with our deck; the end product looks excellent. We did have challenges with scheduling our deck construction and ended up having the build about 3 months after anticipated, and also had some minor issues along the way with miscommunication on design features that we picked up during the construction that had to be readjusted. "My experience with Deck Masters, was overall pretty great. We had some issues with communication initially with an employee that is no longer in the role, but Jordan, Andrew, and Jackie were able to straighten everything out before the scheduled date the project was set to begin. Even companies that perform at a high level end up going through some rough spots, and in my opinion it's not whether or not those rough spots happen, but how they handle them. Deck Masters handled it fantastically. I had a simple small 2nd floor back deck that needed to be replaced, ours was original from 45yrs ago, and was in awful condition. Their demo crew came out and had it down in about an hour, and the trash gone 30min later. About 2 weeks later, their build crew came out, and had the deck done in less than 24hrs. Now my wife and I will need our front deck redone just to match! Thank you guys for helping us out. We love the New Deck."
